

COURSE DESCRIPTOR

Course in Research Funding

Kurs i forskningsfinansiering

Corresponds to 2,0 credits (högskolepoäng)

1. Aim of the course

The aim of the course is to strengthen PhD student's capabilities to apply for external funding of research projects.

2. Content

- Timeframe for proposals
- The funding landscape
- Funding search profiles
- Systematic strategies for grant applications
- Budgeting for projects
- Writing and presenting research funding proposals

3. Objectives

Knowledge and understanding

- Basic knowledge of the research funding landscape
- Understanding of the external research funding application process

Skills and Abilities

- Ability to write and present a realistic and competitive research funding proposal

4. Learning and teaching

Instruction consists of lectures and seminars. The course is taught in English.

5. Assessment and grading

The examination consists of active participation in lectures and seminars, presentation and analysis of an example of an existing submitted proposal, submission and presentation of a realistic and competitive funding proposal in the form of a one page proposal.

Assessment of the course is the grade Pass / Fail.

6. Course evaluation

The course is evaluated through a Course Evaluation.

7. Course literature and other teaching material

- Articles, funding links and presentation material

8. Course examiner

Prof. Tobias Larsson, Department of Mechanical Engineering, BTH

COURSE CERTIFICATE

Course in Research Funding

Kurs i forskningsfinansiering

Corresponds to 2,0 credits (högskolepoäng)

It is hereby certified that has passed the course “Course in Research Funding”

The course corresponds to 2,0 credits (högskolepoäng) and only the grade “Pass” or “Fail” is awarded.

Karlskrona, 2016-10-31

Prof. Tobias Larsson
Course examiner