

COURSE DESCRIPTOR

Research Funding Forskningsfinansiering Corresponds to 3,0 credits (högskolepoäng)

1. Aim of the course

The aim of the course is to strengthen PhD student's capabilities to apply for external funding of research projects.

2. Content

- The research funding landscape
- Strategies for grant applications
- Timeframe for proposals
- Budgeting for projects
- Writing and presenting research funding proposals
- Innovation aspects on research proposals
- Open science including open access and open data

3. Objectives

Knowledge and understanding

- Basic knowledge of the research funding landscape
- Understanding of the external research funding application process

Skills and Abilities

- Ability to write and present a realistic and competitive research funding proposal
- Ability to develop a strategy for grant applications

4. Learning and teaching

Instruction consists of lectures and seminars. The course is taught in English.

5. Assessment and grading

The examination consists of active participation in lectures and seminars, submission of exercises given both between and during the seminars, submission and presentation of a realistic and competitive funding proposal in the form of a project outline.

Assessment of the course is the grade Pass / Fail.

6. Course evaluation

The course is evaluated through a Course Evaluation.

7. Course literature and other teaching material

- Articles, links and presentation material

8. Course examiner

Prof. Tobias Larsson, Department of Mechanical Engineering, BTH